

Bright Start

Responsive Parenting Series Now on Videotape!

Children in South Dakota deserve a “Bright Start” and parents can get some pointers with the “Bright Start Responsive Parenting Series”. The six 1-hour programs, designed for parents with children ages birth to three, are now available on videotape.

Each segment in the series features Kim Overby, a childcare expert from Sioux Valley Hospital in Sioux Falls, who will explore the following subjects:

Tape 1

- ♦ The Parent-Child Dance: Focuses on the developmental milestones of young children.
- ♦ The Unique Child: Highlights how genetics influence your child’s temperament.

Tape 2

- ♦ Responding to Your Child’s Needs: Teaches parents how to provide the developmental encouragement children need.
- ♦ What and How Your Child Learns: Focuses on the importance of nurturing early brain development.

Tape 3

- ♦ Parenting is Stressful: So is Growing Up: Teaches stress management techniques for you and your child.
- ♦ Encouraging Your Child: Provides tips on effective discipline methods.

You can now purchase your own copy of this series for only $15.00 (includes shipping & handling).
